Former Teacher-Aide indicted on Five Counts of Terroristic Threat

The grand jury for the 49th District Court issued a bill of true against Yvette Irma Granger for five (5) counts of Terroristic Threat on April 28, 2021. Granger is accused of making terroristic threats of extreme violence against students and teachers at Clark Middle School, forcing the school to be placed on lockdown for the safety of everyone on the premises. The case is now pending at the 111th District Court before the Honorable Monica Z. Notzon.
